

NOTICE

It has come to our notice that fake advertisements/fake appointment letters using Company's logo and image regarding recruitment to various positions in MTNL (Mahanagar Telephone Nigam Limited) are being posted in different public domain websites and through social/digital/print media, mobile phone calls, text messages etc. by unscrupulous agencies/individuals/groups/organizations. This is to clarify that MTNL has nothing to do with such fake and misleading advertisements. MTNL does not offer out of turn employment to anyone. Recruitment for any position is carried out through a well established selection process comprising of Written Test / Personal Interview / Medical examination, as applicable. All recruitment notices regarding any vacancies in MTNL are displayed on Company's official website i.e. www.mtnl.net.in and detailed recruitment notification mentioning educational qualification, age criteria, reservation and relaxations extended to reserved category candidates, details of selection process and other general instructions are published in leading newspapers and Employment News. MTNL does not solicit any money whatsoever from any candidate at any stage of recruitment process, other than the prescribed application fee as advertised in the recruitment notification. Therefore, general public is hereby cautioned not to be misled by such fake advertisements/fake appointment letters and not fall prey to the fraudulent agencies/individuals/groups/organizations aiming at duping money from innocent public. Any person involved in dealing with such fake agencies/individuals/groups/organizations shall be doing so at his/her own risk and cost, for which MTNL will not be responsible in any manner.

Please visit our official website www.mtnl.net.in regularly for job notifications and updates.

HR Unit, MTNL